Mt. States Wholesale Nursery Donates Plants.

In January of this year, Mt. States Nursery donated dozens of specimen-scale desert adapted plants and we became the recipients of their commitment to excellence in sustainability. Mountain States Wholesale Nursery has been in the business of selecting, producing and finding homes for thousands of native and arid-adapted cultivated and introduced plants for the past 47 years. Owners Ron and Maureen Gass, recognize that incorporating a greater variety of desert plants into landscapes is necessary to achieve more sustainable and livable southwest cities. Their generosity extends to our campus where significant landscape improvements have resulted from donations of spectacular specimen-quality donations. To learn more about these significant and historic landscape improvements, read the story here.
