You're busy, I understand! Being busy is an excellent reason to take a moment, breathe deeply and absorb a moment of peace. Where better to find the oxygen for your breath and a bit of peace? Trees, of course! I hope this note gives you the moment of perspective you need - one that fuels your resilience in the busy-ness of the day and makes you feel magnificent! I also hope you're inspired to deepen the practice of gratitude and awe by visiting campus to find the tree featured in this spotlight.

Enjoy!
